What Boddy is trying to do in California only someone with a bit of pioneering blood would undertake. #### Election Shock From Florida

WASHINGTON, May 8.
THE particularly pleasing thing about the defeat of Senator Claude
Pepper in the Florida Democratic primary was its size. The smashing Smathers majority was so large as to leave no room for the prepared alibis that victory was achieved with Republican votes or corporation money. Nevertheless, the professional "liberals," whose darling Mr. Pepper was, have not scrupied to use these in the vain effort to minimize the blow to their so-called "cause" and its national signifi-

THE truth is the elimination of Mr. Pepper by so emphatic a verdict is a severe shock to the forces of what Mr. Hoover calls the "New Generosity." These have dominated the Government of the United States for nearly seventeen years and by their uncontrolled expenditure of Federal funds have created a state of financial disorder and unbalance appalling to every thoughtful citizen, bringing us perilously

IN THE whole Congress there has been no more effective and un-restrained advocate of the spending policies than Mr. Pepper. Un-daunted by either debts or deficits, no matter how high or deep, he has consistently supported every New Deal and Fair Deal proposal costing money. In his campaign he urged more Federal financing, further expansion of the Federal authority and functions, increased old age and unemployed pensions, socialized medicine and repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. In contrast, Mr. Smathers is against deficit financing, for balancing the budget, against socialized medicine, for more free enterprise and less Government control.

IN ADDITION, of course, while Mr. Smathers favors the Taft-Hartley Act, Mr. Pepper has been the practically perfect CIO stooge. From its viewpoint he is a shining hero with a "hundred per cent voting record." It is not surprising the CIO plunged deeply into the Florida fight, made a special drive to get the Negroes registered and, aided by the AFL and railroad brotherhoods, spent considerable money to save their boy. In consequence, the CIO took it on the chin, along with Senator Pepper, and again has demonstrated that its loud boasts of political power are without solid base. In Florida this week their support of Senator Pepper was just as futile as their opposition to Senator Byrd last year. If, as expected, Senator Taft carries Ohio by a big vote in November, the dire threats of these labor bosses about driving disobedient public men out of political life will be far more widely recognized as the hollow bluff they really are—and that will be very salutary for the country.

AS TO the effect on Mr. Truman, the result is more significant than if Mr. Pepper had merely been succeeded by a Republican. Mr. Smathers, in open opposition to Truman's policies—particularly his FEPC policy—is a Democrat. That makes it doubly bed for the Administration. It threatens the whole Truman welfare program. It emphasizes the split in the Democratic party on domestic issues. It strengthens the position of Senator Byrd and other anti-Welfare State Democrate. It probably will be reached and other anti-Welfare State Democrats. It probably will be another Senate vote and voice for economy. And, though Mr. Truman was cagey enough not publicly to become involved in the fight, the Pepper defat starts him off on to become involved in the fight, the Pepper defat starts him off on his big whistle-stop tour with a loss in party strength which can hardly be explained except on the embarrassing ground that his program failed to appeal to the people in the first state where a test has been possible this year. He has been further weakened by inevitably diminished confidence of many Democratic members of Congress as to the vote-getting potency of the Truman policies.

IN BRIEF, all along the line the Florida result is unfortunate from the Truman standpoint. Certainly, it will be more difficult for him to keep up his cocky assurance that either the people or his party is behind him with any degree of solidity. As to the processional "liberals," the result has left them rather badly disheveled and winded. Their explanations have been strained to the point of silliness. Their belief in the formula that had so often carried so many New Deal and Fair Deal candidates to victory has been shattered. Senator Pepper, a full-blown "liberal" if ever there was one and a "high dog" in that can be used in any way to pin the Red label on Democratic candidates. Boddy, they argue, would in no way be vulnerable to such in a fight where the odds were all in his favor. His is the most conspicuous and notable mortality that has coursed a recommendation. charges.

But the parallel cannot be pushed too far. Despite certain resemed to far. Despite certain resemble certain resemed to far. Despite certain resemed to far. Despite certain resemble resemble resemble resemble ed too far. Despite certain resemblances in climate and vegetation, it is discouraging—to them.

"The Homemaker — Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" is Pennsyl-vania's theme for National Home Demonstration Week, Lawrence county women will use this week to review some of their accomplishments and to acquaint the public with the benefits of the Home Economics Extension work.

Helping families to get the most nutritious value for their food dollar has been given special attention throughout the years of extension work, but there are always new and better methods of processing, storing and preparation of foods being made possible through

Even though farm families are buying more food, they still depend upon production and preservation of home food supplies for much of their basic needs. Home and commercial locker freezing provides storage for large quantities of meats, fruits and vegetables. Canning as well as drying and brining continue to provide preservation for farm grown foods. Important Item

Giving homemakers the latest available information from scientifically conducted research about the techniques of preserving foods is an important item on the schedule of the Home Economics Extension program.

Learning to use these home preserved foods in well-balanced tasty, attractive meals is a constant challenge to every homemaker. With a list of available farm grown foods in their homes, homemakers of Lawrence county planned a week's meals for their families. In following meetings, the Home Economics Extension workers, Miss Patricia Kelly and Mrs. George Yack demonstrated new methods of preparing home preserved foods in order to give variety in the daily meals.

Lawrence county homemakers find that providing nutritious meals can be possible with careful planning for the use of their home preserved foods supplimented by the necessary purchased foods.

A group of 10-year olds were talking about their teachers. What I like about Miss Tennent," said Bill Adams, "is that she gets mad in such a nice way." Though it happens to us often, we adults sometimes feel guilty when we do become angry with children. Yet, if we do so in what Bill called "such a nice way" there's no reason for concern.

I didn't have a chance to hear any details from Bill, but he probably had several things in mind. First of all, children will understand and accept grownups' anger if there is good reason for it. Sometimes, unfortunately, we fly off the handle without good and sufficient reasons. Then, too, the way we show our anger makes a difference. If we say and do things that make a child squirm, he's not liable to echo Bill's sentiments.

Actually, we owe it to children to let them know what kinds of behavior displeases others. Unless they learn this, they are likely to have a difficult time learning how best to act. Yes, a little "righteous" indigation has its place in this business of bringing up chil-

Youth Attempts To Gate-Crash Truman Train At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, May 8 .- (INS)-A tall youth who just had to "meet Margaret" instead was interviewed by Pittsburgh detectives and seeret service men when he attempted to gate-crash President Truman's private train in Pittsburgh. The youth was whisked from the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad waiting room last night and taken downtown for questioning. After he was photographed for secret service files, he was released. Police withheld his name. The president's train stopped for seven minutes to permit local Democratic party leaders to visit briefly with the chief executive.

Half Million Dollar Fire Loss At Pittston

PITTSTON, Pa., May 8 .- (INS) -Damages were estimated today at more than a half million dollars in the wake of a wind-swept fire which raced through Pittston's business district.

Thirty firemen were either injured or overcome in the blaze.
Fifteen families were made

Firemen from five Luzerne county communities battled the fire yesterday, aided by volunteers attending a firemens' convention a mile away in Duryea. The conventioneers trundled 20 pieces of fire apparatus to the scene.

Cause of the blaze was not established, according to fire authori-

The fire broke out shortly after noon Sunday and made steady progress in front of a high wind. Firemen finally gained control near nightfall.

U.P.'s Defeat Merger Plan

ger which would have brought 210,000 members of the United Presbyterian church and 180,000 members of the Reformed Church in America into one denomination has been voted down by U. P. Presbyteries throughout the country.

Paradoxically, according to Dr.
T. M. Taylor, of Pittsburgh, chairman of the U. P. committee on church relations, the merger was favored 1,004 to 220 in a popular vote in the presbyteries.

In announcing the result, Dr.
Taylor explained that a church rule provides that such a merger must be approved by a three-fourth majority in each of three-fourths of the presbyteries. Eigh-teen of the units fell short.

Supervising the three Diesel units was Robert Mort of New Castle, son of Terminal Trainmas-

The long train slid into a jar-less landing, water was fed into the huge engine, car knockers made a hurried inspection and promptly at 11:35 the special rolled out headed west. Mr. Mort breathed a sigh of relief, the tension lifted and soon the engines on the various tracks began rolling to get their trains made up.

Switches Spiked The president pays for the fares of the group aboard and those not in the official presidential party such as newspaper men, radio, Western Union and others pay their fare. But the B&O probably spends eight times the fare total seeing that the president gets through without incident. Every facing switch from Washington to Chicago is spiked an hour before the train comes through and the spikes are pulled after the tail lights of the special are vanishing into the distance. At Sterling, O., another emergency engine was waiting, an another at

Nothing is left to chance. Every man knows his job and all of them were at their posts before the special rolled in. It's a matter of pride that the presidential special goes through New Castle on time and without accident and any sab-oteur who might have wondered into the junction area Sunday night would probably have been brained with a lamp or a brake

It's an example of military effi-ency. Nobody seemed to be hurrying but every man was at his post on time. But those B&O lads couldn't spoof us. Technically it was just another train, but there was a personal pride in the work that outranked that of getting another train through

Didn't See President

As for the president, we didn't see him. He was probably dreaming of Missouri or Washington or the recent returns from Florida. The payoff of the midnight trip through the busy yards came after the presidential train had left. General Foreman Kenneth Dicks invited us up to the wreck train for a "cup of coffee".

It was chilly, the wind sweeping across the yards seemed to invite a cup of java and we hiked up the tracks to the wreck train.

HARRISBURG, May 8.—An unusual political feud between Gov.
James H. Duff and University of Pennsylvania President Harold E. Stassen today highlighted the opening of the last week of the 1950 primary election campaign.
Stassen wrote Duff demanding that the governor either apologize that the governor either apologize for an attack on his credibiltiy or poitn out the error in his claim that the state's next chief executive will be faced with a 90 million dollar deficit. Duff is a Republican candidate for the U. S. senatorial promination.

The Duff-Stassen feud marked the first time in many a campaign that a governor and the head of a major educational institution have been engaged in a political dispute.

Educators have usually remained aloof from active participation in politics for fear of political reprisal when the General Assembly meets to consider allocation of state funds to colleges and universities. Tunds to colleges and universities.

Stassen, who toughened his pol-tical muscles as Minnesota's gover-nor and as a Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1948. said that he assumed his endorsement of Jay Cooke for governor prompted the governor's attack in a political speech at Pottsville last Friday

Duff said Stassen was away off the financial beam and suggested that the university's board of trus-tees look into Stassen's political ac-tivity. Stassen is backing a candi-date opposed by Duff's own run-ningmate, ex-Superior Court Judge John S. Fine.

ningmate, ex-Superior Court Judge John S. Fine.

The 90 million dollar deficit fig-ure, Stassen said, is based on offi-cial state records. Presumably, they are the same records which Duff used to bolster his statement that the only possible deficit in sight when the bi-ennium ends May 31, 1951, is a small relief deficiency.

Hoover's Charge May Be Investigated

WASHINGTON, May 8.—(INS) -Foreign policy leaders in Con-gress divided today on the charge by ex-President Herbert Hoover that the United Nations in under 'Communist domination.

House Foreign Affairs Chairman Kee (D) W. Va., denounced Hoov-er's accusation as an "unfortunate mistake which he should correct at once.

Sen. Wiley (R) Wis., top active Republican on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he wants to investigate the charge. Wiley declared:

',When a man of Mr. Hoover's stature makes such a charge, it merits serious consideration. It has been known for sometime that there are a large number of ex-treme left-wingers in the technical staff of the organization.

Literally the president spoke from dawn until midnight on the birthday trip which took him from Washington to Chicago.

But then, Mr. Truman has spent every birthday while in the White House hard at work. There is some doubt if any of the other birth-days—with the exception of May 1945, when Germany surrender-ed—equalled today.
 In Lincoln, the heart of the midwestern farm belt and the capital of a Republican state, Mr. Truman will sound a cry for enactment of the Brannan farm plan.

He also is expected to discuss the "cold war" with Russia. The chief executive looked in fine physical trim yesterday as he began the trip that will sound the opening gun in his party's campaign to retain control of Congress in the fall election.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gricks of 1515 East Washington street and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller of 1105 Stanton avenue spent the month of April touring the western states. They drove 7300 miles and crossed Among places of interest visited were the Royal Gorge, Garden of the Gods, Cave of the Winds, the Petrified Forest, the Painted Desert, the Grand Canyon, and the Red Wood Empire. The cities in which they did considerable sightseeing were Colorado Springs, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Reno and Salt Lake City.

Several mountain passes and national parks were closed because of snow storms, and much to their disappointment, parts of their itin-erary had to be abandoned.

They stopped en route at Indianapolis to visit with the 96-year-old father of Mrs. Gricks. They also enjoyed a brief visit with the Howard and David Clark families at Window Rock, Ariz. The Clarks are missionaries among the Navajo Indians. They have many friends in this city who will be glad to know that they are in good heath, and that their work at the mission is progressing quite well, enabling them to branch out into new fields of activity their journey homeward. The group was more than satis-fied with the wonderful eights they saw, and with the gracious western hospitality, but nevertheless, were glad to see the old home town loom up in the eastern horizon.

Bessemer at Hillsville. Wampum at New Galilee Koppel at Ellwood VFW. Pennant winning Wampum, operating under a new regime, won its opener in the County baseball league yesterday at Wampum by edging New Galilee, 6 to 5. The game was close and a thriller all the way. Wampum won going up hill by tying the score with two runs in the last of the ninth and fighting back to score the tying and winning runs in the 12th after New Galilee had scored what looked like the winning run in the top of the same inning.

Vance tripled for Wampum with two on in the ninth to tie the score at 4-all. McCready's double with two on in the last inning plated the tying and winning markers. Clerici pitched good ball for New Galilee until he tired in the 11th and Green came on to take the loss in the 12th. Hairhogger started on the mound for Wam-pum. He was relieved by Bauder. McCready came on in the late innings to win his own ball game.

Middleground Derby Winner

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

LOUISVILLE, May 8 .- That well known children's fable about the choo choo that one day forgot to stop is not wholly accurate.

The real life hero is not a loco motive but a velvet-nosed chestnut colt named Middleground, and just because of that Bob Kleberg's million acre King Ranch today is seeking its second triple crown in horse racing in a five-year span.

The same Texas outfit that won the Kentucky Derby, the Preak-ness and the Belmont Stakes with the club-footed Assault in 1946 figures well to do it this year with Middleground off the latter's amaz-

Manager (Chuck) Cronin racked up his first win Sunday as he turned in a magnificent relief job for 6 and ½ innings to win 11 to 10 as his players taking spirit by the way the "boss" was pitching, turned on the heat at the plate and overcome a deficit of 9 to 8 in the sixth of the year.

Next Sunday the five teams will tee off at the New Castle Country club in the third week of league action. Time of the match is 11 westminster.

Cronin gave up three hits, one a homer by Harvey Roop, the big Pioneer outfielder in the seventh to begin the inning. Cronin used cunning twice to pick off Jensen at first base, in aiding his own cause. Batting stars in the Saturday win for the Senators were Kiel and young Dick Ackerman, filling in at short for the ailing Eikenberg, both Kiel and "Ack" had two hits. The Sunday batting stars in the Senator's lineup were: Gene Bilo, Danny Dondero, Ackerman and Johnny Vizzini all with two hits.

Cane Relay Team Wins At Salem

New Castle High four-mile relay team won Saturday night in the Salem night relays. It was the only local entry in Westminster college's first base ball team in over a decade the big Ohio event that annually attracts around 25 high school track and field teams.

New Castle won by a slight mar-gin of only four inches in the very good time of 19 min. and 36 sec. This was just short of the record for the event and was 24 seconds faster than last year's time for the same event.

Ace mile and cross country star Dick Boyle anchored the team and brought the scarlet jerseys home first with the baton. Other members of the winning team were Tom Shaw, Jimmy Goodrich, and Frank Conners.

Conners is the best half-miler on the New Castle track team. He ran his first mile in school competition Friday afternoon and went on to turn in very good time for the locals on Saturday night.

NEW YORK, May 8.-No matter how Tommy Byrne looks at the De-5-to-2 win in the second game. troit Tigers they still appear as playful little kittens. Byrne stopped the Tigers five times-or for one-third of his 15 victories last season. Yesterday he boosted his lifetime mark against them to nine wins and two losses by pitching and batting the Bombers to a 6-to-3 triumph Red Sox Win crept within percentage points of Detroit by taking two games from St. Louis, 8 to 6 and 6 to 2. Ted Williams hit his seventh homer in

Boston's power-packed Red Sox

The Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago White Sox split a twin bill. The White Sox won the first game, 7 to 3. The Athletics won, 4 to 2, in the finale.

Two home runs by rookie Al Ro-sen and one by Jim Hagan were nullified by Gil Coan's grand-slam homer as the Washington Senators topped the Cleveland Indians, 10

Cards Stop Braves
In the National league the highflying Boston Braves were stopped cold by the St. Louis Cardinals and Howie Pollet. Pollet blanked the Braves, 15 to 0, on four hits. Jackie Robinson drove in all of Brooklyn's runs with a homer and a double as the Dodgers topped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 2. Jack Banta allowed both Pittsburgh runs in the first inning on two wild pitches with the bases loaded. Reliefer Rex Barney was credited with the win, while Murry Dickson took the defeat for the Bucs.

Phils Win Pair Philadelphia's second place Phil-lies swept both ends of a doubleheader from the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 0 and 6 to 4.

The New York Giants made it three in a row by winning both ends of a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs. The Giants edged the Cubs, 4 to 3, in the opener and

CONNIE MACK in his biography, "My 66 Years in the Big Leagues" says there are many persons who claim to have discovered the great Rube Waddell and adds that he would like to put in a claim too for a share of the honors.

"...Like many of the early players, he liked his cups," says Mack.

"When he was reprimended for drinking, he would remark: 'Well, I guess I'll go fishin'. I'd rather fish than play baseball anyhow. "Rube's wanderings took him to Detroit, then in the Western League; to semi-pro games in Canada; back to the professionals in Columbus; then to Grand Rapids; back to the Louisvilles, and on to "A crowd had gathered in Brooklyn one day in 1900 to witness game against Pittsburgh, with the Great Rube in the box for the When the time came for the game to start, it was discovered that Rube had wandered out of the park. Immediately a frantic search was made for him. "After many anxious moments the missing celebrity was found The Great Rube was under the stands, playing 'miggles' with adoring small boys. He objected to having his game of marbles rudely interrupted; but when persuaded that the crowd was waiting for him, he strode back to the field and pitched a shutout against the Brooklyns, allowed only three hits, and struck out ten men. . . . "My experiences with the Great Rube were many and varied. recall that on one occasion I made a bargain with him. 'Rube,' I said, you've just won the first game of a double header. If you'll pitch second game, I'll let you go on a fishing trip.'

Rube's eyes lighted up with joy. He pitched the second game too, grabbed his fishing rod and hurried off to the river. The string of catches, he brought home was even larger than his string of baseball victories.

". . . When he wandered away from a game we usually found him fishing or playing with the kids. We once found him in a show window, posing, as an automaton. Another time we learned that he had joined the fire department. 'So I can ride on the fire engines,' he said. Another time we found him leading a parade.

"I remember one spring training season in Florida when Rube decided he wanted to be an alligator wrestler. When he saw a man making his living wrestling alligators, Rube jumped into the pool engaged in combat with a 'gator and dragged it out victoriously. had difficulty in keeping him out of alligator pools from that time on.

City loop ball games Tuesday evening will be Universals at De-Carbos, Franks at Fees, Lawrence Indies at St. Margarets, Croton at West Pittsburg and Ecclesians at Field Artillery (Washington field) ... Ellwood Rod and Gun club will have a luncheon after its meeting tonight. Motion pictures of sports will also be displayed. . . "Meet the Browns", the Cleveland Browns promotional film was recently shown in New Zealand. The game was new to the viewers, although they play a game somewhat similar, but without blocking. The picture so intrigued the group from "Down-Under" they organized two football squad (American style). . . Inclement weather has interferred with the training of Joe Rick's trotters and pacers. . . It is not known when Joe will start his summer campaign. . . Trots and paces will start next Saturday and run 19 nights at Fort Steuben raceway, at Steubenville. Beau Hunter who negotiated the fastest mile for a trotter over the course last year will try to better his mark of 2:09. The nine year old bay gelding is owned by Bill Krieger, a former polo player of Mercer. Paul Young will give the horses the word this season. . . Stock car racing got under way yesterday at the Sharon Speedway. It is a half-mile track.

Beer Drinking Season At Hand

Drunks Litter Lawn With Empty Beer Cans

It isn't that the county commissioners complain about a citizen shooting a short beer at times.

But the commissioners do resent, fact they are rather perturbed over the fact that the court house lawn is being littered every night with empty beer cans.

The beer drinking season seems to be at hand and apparently a bunch of the boys are whooping it up nightly on the court house lawn. And every morning the janitors gather up a bucketful of the cans.

If any of the readers of this column are beer drinkers (could it be possible) and they are one of the merry clan gathering on the court house lawn for a nightly beerfest, they might knock off for a time. Somebody is going to get arrested.

TURKEYS FOR INSTITUTIONS

The frozen turkeys received by the county commissioners several days ago are not for distribution to needy families Commissioner Joseph W. Gilmore said Saturday. They are for institutions and for schools.
